

Solar Power Concept Map

Remember that solar energy can also benefit people who are not able to install solar panels on their homes or apartment buildings by using solar farms. Remote solar farms allow communities to use solar energy routed through the ComEd Smart Grid.

Sketch a quick icon for each of the hotspots on the concept map below. Then create a quick description for each hotspot to help others understand how solar power can be delivered to homes using solar panels as well as to homes without solar panels.

